

Each of our guests are treated to gourmet outdoor cooking on their hunting trips. Your trophy could end up on the menu if you would like to share with your guests. A big homestyle country breakfast will get you and your guests off to a good start.

Our menu's change on every trip. If you have any food allergies or special requests, we will make every effort to accomodate.